Course Title: Art Appreciation

Course #: Art 100

Course Description

An introduction to the formal and expressive aspects of two and three dimensional art through intellectual and experiential exploration of the basic principles and elements of visual art. An overview of the principal periods of art history and primary art historical issues will be included in the course. Previous art training is not necessary. (3 semester hours)

Pre-requisite/Co-requisite: ENG 093 or with concurrency

Objectives:

- To develop a foundation for an appreciation of the visual arts by exploring a variety of venues central to the subject matter
- To gain a heightened awareness of aesthetic, technical and conceptual problems through hands-on experience with art projects
- To acquire a basic knowledge of studio methods and processes
- To be able to critically analyze and clearly verbalize about the art experience

Outcomes:

- To attain an understanding of the core elements and principles of design used in the art-making process
- To gain a knowledge of the historical issues associated with the visual arts
- To be visually literate with an ability to utilize an art vocabulary adequate to the task of discussing art in a meaningful way
- To be enriched/energized by the hands-on experience; to better understand how art is made
- To have recognition for art as a complex, vital and ever-changing expression of the human condition

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your "Student Handbook" under "Policy on Student Rights," the Section entitled "Student Discipline," or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College's website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
