

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Title: Art History II

Course #: ART* 102

Course Description: A study of significant influences on the development of painting, sculpture, and architecture primarily in the cultures most influential in the evolution of art—fourteenth century through today.

Prerequisite: eligibility for ENG 101.

Goals:

- 1) To learn about what it was like to be an artist from fourteenth century through today.
- 2) To understand how their time, location, and culture affected their products.
- 3) To understand the purposes of the arts and the many modes of representation that art has taken.
- 4) To study artists' lives through both biographical research and their work.

Course Objectives:

Through a survey of fourteenth-century art through today, students will connect the transforming styles of artistic expression to changes in the political, social, and religious influences of those times. Students will be introduced to the process of art historical analysis and the means by which works of art are “read.”

Learning Outcomes:

1. Historical perspective:

- Students will learn the stylistic characteristics fourteenth century through today.
- Students will learn how to place works of art in historical perspective.
- Students will learn how different social-cultural contexts shape the making of art.

2. Analyzing art works:

- Students will learn how to define the form and content of specific works of art.
- Students will learn how to begin to interpret works of art.
- Students will learn how to make informed decisions and statements about art.
- Students will learn the vocabulary of art and art history.

College Policies:

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanction. Please refer to your “Student Handbook” under “Policy on Student Rights,” the Section entitled “Student Discipline,” or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Roseann Dennerlein, Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6307 (V/TTY) and her email is rdennerlein@nwcc.commnet.edu. If a student requires writing assistance, he or she is encouraged to take advantage of tutorials through the Academic Skills Center. See <http://www.nwcc.commnet.edu/skillscenter/index.htm> for more information.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations. (But, keep in mind that this is an online course!!) Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message or log onto the College website at www.nwcc.commnet.edu for information concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Online Testing and Mobile Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
