

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Title: Three Dimensional Design

Course #: ART 122

Course Description:

Studio problems explore basic three dimensional art elements– line, plane, mass, volume, space, size, color, light, surface and context. Development of personal content using a variety of three dimensional tools, materials and processes. (3 credit hours)

Pre-requisite/Co-requisite: None

Goal:

- To use the vocabulary of three-dimensional design to develop aesthetic ideas

Outcomes:

- Construct art works which express personal content using three dimensional elements of art (line, shape, mass, volume, texture, surface, context, size, color) and principles of design (unity and variety, rhythm, balance, emphasis, scale and proportion)
- Use the basic processes of three dimensional design – research, idea generation, preliminary sketches, maquettes, surface test tiles, idea execution, feedback, revisions - using drawing as mean of notation and conceptualization
- Use “brainstorming” exercises to facilitate idea generation
- Demonstrate skills and procedures in using three dimensional art tools, materials and processes to build a variety of structures
- Choose tools, materials and processes which compliment a particular artistic intention or concept
- Interpret the form and content of a works of three dimensional art using design terminology
- Display works of three dimensional design in a professional setting using pedestals, wall mounts and controlled lighting
- Document works of three dimensional design in digital form

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your “Student Handbook” under “Policy on Student Rights,” the Section entitled “Student Discipline,” or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College's website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff. Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
