

Northwestern Connecticut Community College

Course Syllabus

Course Title: Pottery for Non Majors

Course #: Art C133

Course Description: (3 studio hours)

A course where students gain an appreciation for pottery and create hand built and wheel thrown works. A variety of surface treatments and glaze applications are explored.

Goal:

- To create works of hand built and wheel thrown pottery from concept to execution and evaluation
- To explore a variety of decorative techniques on clay surfaces
- To apply selected art elements, terms and design principles to works of pottery
- To discuss works of historical ceramics using basic art and design vocabulary

Learning Outcomes: Upon completion of this course the student should be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of basic forming methods (coil, slab, wheel throwing) and surface treatments (scraffito, overglaze, underglaze slip trailing) by presenting finished ceramic objects
- Demonstrate knowledge of the workability of clay by describing the stages involved in the forming of clay into ceramics (clay with plasticity, leather hard, greenware, bisqueware, glaze ware)
- Complete the creative problem solving process from planning and discovery to implementation and evaluation, using drawing as a means of conceptualization and notation
- Apply art elements (line, shape, volume, color) and design principles (unity, balance, contrast, rhythm and repetition) to creative output
- Critically analyze the form, function and expression of a work of historical ceramics

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your "Student Handbook" under "Policy on Student Rights," the Section entitled "Student Discipline," or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College's website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
