

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE OVERVIEW

Course Title: American Sign Language 1

Course #: ASL 101

Course Description: In this first course of study of the American Sign Language (the language used by the Deaf Community in the United States) students learn the fundamentals of the basic structure of ASL grammar, vocabulary, fingerspelling/numbers, visual-gestural communication, and information related to Deaf Culture.

Pre-requisite/Co-requisite: None

Goals: To provide students with:

- 1) Basic understanding of the cultural aspects of Deafhood;
- 2) The fundamentals and linguistics of American Sign Language (ASL);
- 3) The ability to introduce themselves and share personal information;
- 4) The ability to make requests and explain locations/directions;
- 5) The ability to engage in general conversations within the Deaf Community

Outcomes: At the end of the course, the students will be able to:

- 1) Identify basic visual concepts/messages presented in ASL;
- 2) Apply and self-evaluate the use of ASL sign parameters and non-manual signals (NMS) to convey concepts;
- 3) Incorporate ASL grammatical elements in all dialogue including eye contact, wh-questions, yes/no questions, facial expressions, pronouns, affirmative vs. negation responses;
- 4) Introduce themselves in keeping with norms of Deaf Culture;
- 5) Express themselves in simple conversation using basic ASL vocabulary, grammar structure, and fingerspelled alphabet;
- 6) Attend, reflect and discuss social and cultural events in the Deaf and ASL community.

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your "Student Handbook" under "Policy on Student Rights," the Section entitled "Student Discipline," or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College's website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
