

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Title: Great Speeches

Course #: COM 114

Course Description: 3credits: An online course which studies famous and not-so-famous speeches. The speeches have been chosen according to their relevance to today's world, whether they be about subjects we deal with or situations that laid the foundation for today's society. They may include formal presentations, sermons, and eulogies. Emphasis will be placed on the method of crafting a meaningful, powerful speech. Although a text will be used, students will also witness some of the speeches online.

Pre-requisite/Co-requisite: Eligibility for ENG*101 (through success in developmental classes or satisfactory scores on placement tests)

Goals:

- To develop the students' recognition of good speeches.
- To create the opportunity for students to listen to a number of speeches online, whether they are presented by the author of the speech or by another artist.
- To help the students to explore the historical context of the speeches studied.
- To increase the students' knowledge of the technique of effective speech writing.

Outcomes:

Upon completion of Great Speeches, a student should be able to:

- Listen critically to speeches with a wide range of topics.
- Analyze speeches to determine rhetoric.
- Work with other students online to evaluate speeches.
- Explore historical context of speeches.
- Write a speech which contains the tools which help to create a good speech.

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your "Student Handbook" under "Policy on Student Rights," the Section entitled "Student Discipline," or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College's website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
