

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Title: Database Development II

Course #: CSC* 234

Course Description: 4 Credits. This course addresses advanced topics in database management including SQL coding for database creation and access with platform independence. Data normalization and relational calculus are covered as the theory of data access. Major database management packages will be discussed, installed and administered. Actual business scenarios will be developed, and solutions created for them.

Pre-requisite/Co-requisite: CSC* 233 or with the consent of the instructor

Goals: Students are expected to

- Develop skills in selecting the appropriate database based on user requirements.
- Master the skills in database creation and administration.
- Increase their SQL skills to optimize queries for efficiency.
- Analyze various database management systems to determine storage options
- Refine skills in data normalization to optimize storage

Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- select the optimal database to solve problems and tasks in business
- demonstrate analysis skills to determine optimal database configuration
- create a fully normalized database from a design schema
- migrate data from other systems
- administer a SQL Server database creating database users and groups
- develop optimized SQL to solve business problems
- implement security on a database

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your "Student Handbook" under "Policy on Student Rights," the Section entitled "Student Discipline," or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College's website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
