

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Title: Creative Writing Course #: ENG 281

Course Description: Three (3) credits. Eng 281 provides opportunity for the composition of original works in fiction, poetry and drama. Participants work from exercises and assignments in preparation for completed original stories, poems and dramatic scenes. Assignments involve working in a variety of writing approaches, including dialogue, point of view, narration, and description. The class is structured as a workshop; students share their work and critiques with the class.

Pre-requisite/Co-requisite: English 101 or consent of the instructor.

Goals:

- To deepen student appreciation and knowledge of various types of fiction, poetry, and drama.
- To encourage students to further develop their own abilities and skills in the genres of fiction, poetry and drama.
- To provide students with direct experience in writing from their imagination, and the chance to pursue projects of their own choosing.
- To introduce students to the work of professional writers when possible in the form of visiting authors, who will read and present their work to the class for student discussion and inquiry and a glimpse “behind the scenes.”

Outcomes:

- The student will gain a deeper appreciation and knowledge of various types of fiction and poetry.
- The student will have further developed his or her own abilities and skills in the genre of fiction, drama and poetry.
- The student will have gained direct experience in writing from his/her imagination, and the chance to pursue projects of his/her own choosing.

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your “Student Handbook” under “Policy on Student Rights,” the Section entitled “Student Discipline,” or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College's website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
