

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Title: Modern Ireland

Course #: HIS 242

Course Description: 3 Credits

The class will be divided into two parts. The first section will encompass ancient, medieval, and early modern Ireland. Topics for discussion will include a brief analysis of the ancient Celts, the coming of Christianity and British attempts at conquest and colonization. In the second section, we will deal with Ireland from the Act of Union in 1801 to the 20th Century. Special attention will be paid to the Famine, reform movements, the coming of the Republic and "the Troubles."

Pre-requisite: ENG* 101 with a grade of "C-" or better or with concurrency.

Goals: - to understand and analyze the social, economic and political movements in Ireland from the Medieval Period through the 20th Century.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
