

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Title: Interpreting I: Consecutive & Transliterating Course #: INT 113

Pre-requisite/Co-requisite: ASL* 205, INT* 103, INT* 121

Course Description: 4 semester hours. Students are introduced to the technique of interpreting as a skill development tool for increasing discourse analysis, visualization, and message equivalence and as a practice form for interpreting. Students will expressively and receptively interpret from both recorded texts and live speakers.

Goals: To provide students with skills to

1. produce interpretations that are compatible with the language of the participants
2. use linguistic and cultural markers appropriate to the situation
3. make decisions that recognize the information value and meaning of the source language and reproduce those into the target language
4. create cohesion and coherence in the interpretation

Outcomes: Students will

1. demonstrate proficiency in interpretation showing evidence of compatible language as evident in the rubric used for scoring
2. interpret showing evidence of content equivalence
3. demonstrate appropriate use of the linguistic and cultural makers appropriate to the situation
4. show evidence of appropriate decisions that recognize the information value and meaning in the source language
5. show evidence of cohesion and coherence at the discourse level.

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your “Student Handbook” under “Policy on Student Rights,” the Section entitled “Student Discipline,” or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods

Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College's website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
