

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE
COURSE SYLLABUS

COURSE TITLE: Educational Interpreting

Course #: INT 134

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course surveys the educational environment's impact on the deaf/hard of hearing student and the role of an interpreter in this setting. Included topics for discussion are: legislation impacting the education of deaf children, factors impacting a deaf child's development, classroom factors impacting the interpreting process, the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf Code of Conduct, and assessing case studies involving ethical considerations.

PRE-REQUISITE: Prerequisites: ASL 201 & INT 121, or permission of the instructor.

GOALS: To understand the impact of a mainstream education on the deaf/hard-of-hearing student by reviewing influential factors. These factors include: federal and local legislation concerning the educational rights of a deaf student; the impact of deafness on language, cognitive and psychosocial development of a deaf student; roles and responsibilities of the educational interpreter; and, the RID Code of Professional Standards as it applies to the educational interpreter.

OUTCOMES:

1. To identify and discuss the pros and cons of laws affecting the use of interpreters in the educational setting.
2. To discuss factors that impact a deaf child's development (language development, cognitive development, social development).
3. To use the RID Code of Conduct to identify and analyze issues in the educational setting that require ethical considerations.
4. To assess an educational setting and identify the skills needed by the interpreter.

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your "Student Handbook" under "Policy on Student Rights," the Section entitled "Student Discipline," or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff. Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:

Ruth Gonzalez, PHD	860-738-6315	Greenwoods Hall Room 220
Susan Berg	860-738-6342	Greenwoods Hall Room 223
Kathleen Chapman	860-738-6344	Greenwoods Hall Room 110
