

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Title: Intermediate Spanish I

Course #: SPA* 201

Course Description: 3 credits

Spanish 201 is designed to reinforce and to apply the grammatical concepts learned in the previous semesters as well as introduce new structures, concepts, and vocabulary as befitting an intermediate-level Spanish course through cultural readings, compositions, listening exercises, short films, and guided conversational activities.

Pre-requisite/Co-requisite: a grade of C or higher in Spanish 102 or consent of the instructor.

Goals:

- To articulate ideas and perspectives to classmates in written and spoken Spanish on cultural topics related to the Spanish-speaking world.
- To solidify the acquired skills of listening, reading, speaking, and writing Spanish and acquire new skills.
- To expand vocabulary.
- To gain additional knowledge of Spanish grammar.

Outcomes: By the end of the semester students should be able to:

- Sustain conversations using learned vocabulary, expressions, and verbs to talk about themselves and their preferences, activities and interests in the present and the past (preterit and imperfect), and the future.
- Be able to give formal commands and to express the present subjunctive, using verbs of will and influence.
- Express knowledge of vocabulary associated with: personal relationships and status; the media; city life; family and life stages; the natural world.
- Express grammatical structures in speech and in writing: irregular preterits; que vs. cual; imperfect tense; familiar and formal commands; prepositions; por vs. para; possessive adjectives and pronouns; relative pronouns; the present subjunctive.
- Be able to comprehend cultural and contemporary short films and readings in Spanish and be able to write at an intermediary level.

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your "Student Handbook" under "Policy on Student Rights," the Section entitled "Student Discipline," or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College's website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

Use of Electronic Devices: Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts.

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim's needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:
