

impactful storytelling years in the making

SOCIAL IMPACT + FILMMAKING INTERNSHIPS

Positions Available Now

Captured Time Productions (est. 1991)

Awards: 9 Emmys; +50 major film and video festival awards

Films: 7 documentaries, including Dislecksia: The Movie and One by One: The Teachings of Diana King

Professional Production Experience: +30 years

Location: Litchfield, CT

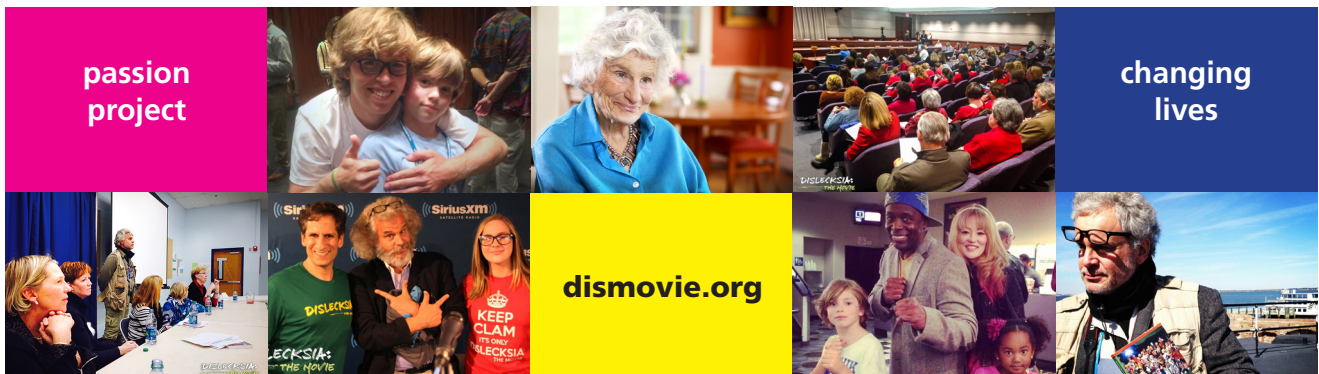

This internship is geared towards providing practical hands-on experience for students to improve their understanding of all aspects filmmaking, production, storytelling, marketing, communications, social media and social impact work.

Join us! This is an unpaid internship that offers valuable experience for students interested in working in marketing, social impact, film or television.

Skills & Experience

- Strong understanding of and experience with social media for brands and/or causes
- Experience with Hootsuite and Facebook Insights
- Excellent writing skills
- Strong organizational skills
- Strong analytical skills and ability to assist other team members in problem solving
- Excellent teamwork skills, flexibility, and ability to handle multiple tasks
- Ability to work well with others, to establish and maintain relationships
- Ability to get things done in a dynamic, resource scarce environment w/ competing business priorities
- Passion for creating fun and compelling user experiences
- Proficiency with Adobe CC; Office; AVID; cameras; lighting, sound, production equipment
- Familiarity with, and interest in, nonprofit organizations and causes
- Must be a self-starter, a team player and driven
- Perseverance

Contact us at captimepro@gmail.com or call 860-567-0675.

passion project changing lives

dismovie.org