

NORTHWESTERN CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Title: Elementary German II

Course #: GER 102

Course Description: 3 credits

In this course, you will study the basic foundations of the German language. Emphasis will be placed on vocabulary, sentence structure, and conversation. Besides language, we will also periodically investigate German culture and history and its connection to language development. As this is a skill-developing course, a strong work ethic is important in this course, but you also need to be a little fearless.

Pre-requisite: GER 101 with a C- or better or permission of faculty.

Goals:

- To achieve a basic comprehension of the study of languages in general and German in particular
- To participate in basic conversations
- To develop the courage to speak in public
- To begin to grasp the complexities of written German
- To recognize the diverse traditions within the German-speaking world

Outcomes: By the end of the semester, students should be able to accomplish the following:

- Define the basic structures of English grammar and how they apply to German.
- Students will recognize the parts of speech and the parts of a sentence
- Assemble a basic vocabulary and apply it to written and spoken work
- Learn about German food, culture, sports, and hobbies
- Distinguish the differences between nominative, accusative, dative, and genitive cases
- Analyze and use Germanic grammatical concepts such as the simple past and present perfect tenses
- Learn about and apply reflexive pronouns and subordinating conjunctions
- Use interrogative pronouns wo, wohin, and woher to ask questions
- Distinguish between dative and accusative prepositions

College Policies

Plagiarism: Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty are not tolerated at Northwestern Connecticut Community College. Violators of this policy will be subject to sanctions ranging from failure of the assignment (receiving a zero), failing the course, being removed/expelled from the program and/or the College. Please refer to your “Student Handbook” under “Policy on Student Rights,” the Section entitled “Student Discipline,” or the College catalog for additional information.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): The College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented learning, physical, or psychiatric disabilities. Students should notify Dr. Christine Woodcock, the Counselor for Students with Disabilities. She is located at Green Woods Hall, in the Center for Student Development. Her phone number is 860-738-6318 and her email is cwoodcock@nwcc.edu.

School Cancellations: If snowy or icy driving conditions cause the postponement or cancellation of classes, announcements will be made on local radio and television stations and posted on the College’s website at www.nwcc.edu. Students may also call the College directly at (860) 738-6464 to hear a recorded message concerning any inclement weather closings. Students are urged to exercise their own judgment if road conditions in their localities are hazardous.

"Some course content as presented in Blackboard Learn is not fully supported on mobile devices at this time. While mobile devices provide convenient access to check in and read information about your courses, they should not be used to perform work such as taking tests, quizzes, completing assignments, or submitting substantive discussion posts."

Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team: NCCC is committed to creating a community that is safe and supportive of people of all gender and sexual identities. This pertains to the entire campus community, whether on ground or virtual, students, faculty, or staff.

Sexual assault and intimate partner violence is an affront to our national conscience, and one we cannot ignore. It is our hope that no one within our campus community will become a victim of these crimes. However, if it occurs, NCCC has created the SART Team - Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Resource Team - to meet the victim’s needs.

SART is a campus and community based team that is fully trained to provide trauma-informed compassionate service and referrals for comprehensive care. The team works in partnership with The Susan B. Anthony Project to extend services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week throughout the year.

The NCCC team members are:

Ruth Gonzalez, PHD	860-738-6315	Greenwoods Hall Room 220
Susan Berg	860-738-6342	Greenwoods Hall Room 223
Kathleen Chapman	860-738-6344	Greenwoods Hall Room 110
